Tegra Financial Partners Adds Director of Business Development

ATLANTA, November 15, 2010– Tegra Financial Partners, LLC announced today that Julian C. (Brad) Bradham has joined the organization Director of Business Development. Prior to joining Tegra, Bradham held executive positions at several of the nation's largest investment management companies including Morgan Stanley, Smith Barney and Oppenheimer & Co.

In his role at Tegra, Bradham will be focused on expanding the team of financial advisors serving Tegra clients and identifying potential markets for expansion.

"Tegra has an aggressive plan to grow by providing a wide range of services to high-net-worth families and individuals. I am excited about being a part of that plan," Bradham said.

"We are excited to have Brad with us," said Nick Bhandari, Managing Director of Tegra. "His skill set and proven experience in adding quality advisors as well as running the branch operations of several national financial services companies will absolutely help us execute our plan."
