At HA&W, each relationship is special. No matter what size your business, every client is equally important — which is why you have a dedicated partner from day one. We work hard to match the skills, abilities and experiences of each of our members with the needs and situations of each of our clients. Once this relationship has been established, we're better able to advise our clients on the unique challenges that they face and exceed their definitions of success.

Who We Are

For more than 50 years, Habif, Arogeti & Wynne has offered a diversity of innovative services and successfully incorporated rapidly changing government regulations to help our clients achieve their goals. We are the largest independent accounting and consulting firm in Georgia, and one of the top 100 firms in the United States.

How We Are Different

HA&W offers the range of services and geographic presence of an international firm, with the close, personal attention of a local firm. Our services range from traditional accounting to specialized tax services, including international, state and local tax planning and compliance. Additional services include management consulting, retirement plan design and administration, and business coaching and advisory services.

We operate with an entrepreneurial spirit, as many of our clients do — understanding that success requires hard work and accountability, and that commitment has its rewards. Our founders and our partners are, themselves, entrepreneurs and can offer insight to those who have a desire to see their businesses prosper. Valuable advice — from a company that's grown to be one of the top firms in the country.

We wouldn't be able to offer so many services so efficiently without keeping a close eye on the future. By pioneering a proactively integrated technology that allows us to function in a completely digital environment, we're able to deliver a much higher level of service. This new technology streamlines the entire customer experience. It also creates efficiencies and savings we can pass on to our clients.

What You Can Expect

We stress professionalism in everything we do. That means operating independently, with integrity and objectivity, and adhering to professional standards, laws and regulations. We're dedicated to building long-term relationships with our clients. And we're committed to your success. When you turn to HA&W, you can be confident knowing you are working with a true partner who understands your business.

HA&W offers the range of services and geographic presence of an international firm, with the close, personal attention of a local firm.

All of our partners and senior management still use a hands-on approach with each and every client.

By helping our community thrive, we stand firmly together on a foundation of achievement.

Our People

No matter how long they've been in the business, all of our partners and senior management still use a hands-on approach with each and every client. And all of our professionals bring a broad range of skills and experiences to bear in helping clients achieve their goals. Members of the firm average more than 20 years of experience and have a wide variety of backgrounds.

We realize that your satisfaction — and our success — depends on our firm's expertise as a whole. Which is why we are committed to hiring individuals with the highest qualifications and certifications. To ensure value and superior service for our clients, HA&W continuously invests in the ongoing development of our professionals. Our training programs help them develop the skills and expertise necessary to meet the ever-changing needs of today's complex business environment.

When a community thrives, everyone has the opportunity to prosper. Which is why our firm supports a wide variety of civic organizations and encourages its staff to be actively involved in their communities. By joining together to create a place where we are all proud to live and work, we will overcome life's challenges and strengthen our community by helping others.

International Capabilities

Although technology has made business easier, global communication, business and tax issues have become more complex. HA&W recognizes the opportunities and obstacles associated with conducting business internationally. We are an independent member of Baker Tilly International, a global association of highly capable, independent accounting and business services firms, all of whom are committed to providing the best possible services to their clients in their own marketplaces and across the world. Baker Tilly International is the eighth largest network in the world by fee income with representation around the globe.

Financial Advisors and Employee Benefits Consultants

We believe it is important to help our clients plan for a secure financial future. For business owners, this means providing a broad universe of retirement plan options and selecting a tailored program that fits the needs of their company and its employees. For individuals, it means building an investment program that is based on a complete understanding of their goals and objectives.

TEGRA Financial Partners, a subsidiary of HA&W, manages a growing portfolio of assets. Each client is assigned a specific advisory team to ensure they receive a unique level of personalized service.

Our clients have access to a broad range of tax, assurance and consulting services, and caring professionals who take the time to understand their specific needs.
