MICHAEL LEVY, JOINS
HABIF, AROGETI & WYNNE TO PROVIDE EXPANDED MENU OF MERGER AND ACQUISITION SERVICES

ATLANTA - (Nov 30, 2009) – Habif, Arogeti & Wynne, LLP (HA&W), one of the country’s top-50 CPA firms, has appointed Michael I. Levy to the position of Director of Merger and Acquisition Services. Levy has over 15 years of audit and merger, acquisition, and divestiture due diligence experience. Prior to joining Habif, Arogeti & Wynne, Levy was a member of PricewaterhouseCoopers’ Transaction Services group from September 2002 through January 2004 and Deloitte’s M&A Transaction Services group from January 2004 through October 2009.

“Michael’s decision to join Habif, Arogeti & Wynne is a tremendous opportunity for our firm to expand its services,” said Dan Simms, managing partner, HA&W. “With significant experience serving domestic and multinational companies, his leadership position in our M&A organization ensures that the right resources are brought to bear on every project, in any business line and in any country.”

Levy has assisted both financial and strategic clients in domestic and international merger, acquisition and divestiture transactions. In his capacity as the Director of Merger and Acquisition Services, his primary responsibilities include assisting clients with developing structures, performing buy-side and sell-side due diligence, closing assistance and post-transaction integration assistance.

“I am excited to join HA&W and look forward to building on the firm’s record of success in helping clients with M&A transactions”, said Levy. “Our goal is to provide clients with a competitive edge which focuses on executing transactions that maximize deal value and returns while minimizing risk.”

Levy's professional affiliations include the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Association for Corporate Growth.
